Juror: Peter Broz

Peter Broz a Houston born artist, discovered his fondness for art at a very young age. His childhood art mostly reflected his love of animals in their natural surroundings. In recent years Peter has been creating paintings and drawings that combine his longtime interest in the natural world, they also include the human figure and aspects of the human condition.

Peter's works are primarily 2-dimensional; in a variety of materials such as acrylic, ink, pencil, colored pencil, oil, watercolors and most recently digital art. Figurative elements, as well as natural and biological references, are utilized to suggest a narrative between humans and nature. His most recent work is focused on the sensory aspect of experiencing nature, as well as the primal and instinctual aspects of human nature.

Peter graduated from the University of Houston with a B.F.A in Studio Painting in 2014. Shortly after graduation Peter received the Juror's award for the 2014 BIG SHOW at Lawndale. Peter has exhibited his work at several galleries in Houston including The Mariago Collective, Hardy and Nance, The Blaffer Museum and Archway Gallery.

Peter currently teaches at the Art League Houston. Has also taught high school art in Houston ISD for 4 years. He is a volunteer for The Woods Project, a local nonprofit wilderness exploration and education program for disadvantaged students in Houston. Furniture design and woodworking has also been a long-term passion, as it is deeply rooted in a reverence for the beauty of natural materials like wood.
